

THE CHARLES BEBEYE NDIOMU FOUNDATION JSS 1 & 2 STUDENTS SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

INTRODUCTION

The Charles Bebeye Ndiomu Foundation in line with its tradition of providing equal opportunities to pupils who have lost one or both of their parents in the line of duty while serving in the Nigerian Armed Forces and are having challenges in accessing quality education due to lack of funds, has commenced the application process for the 2021 Armed Forces Remembrance Day Scholarship Awards Scheme (the “Scheme”). This initiative is aimed at tackling the challenge of accessibility and affordability of quality education among the less privileged in our society.

PURPOSE

This Scheme has been designed to ensure that young brilliant children of deceased armed forces personnel who lost their lives in active service to the Nation are not denied access to quality education. This merit-based initiative has been developed to award scholarships to these children on the 15th of January in commemoration of the Armed Forces Remembrance Day. The pupils will be selected based on their individual performance and awarded scholarships to cover tuition, Examination fees and School supplies.

Prospective Applicants must have met the following Criteria:
